Issue 79 Summer 2018/19

The cover of this issue shows a section of Sabrina Hahn's Perth garden. Sabrina is one of Australia's most loved gardening personalities and she tells us in a frank Q&A article how she came to WA and why she loves this state so much.

Also in this issue:

- Top Tee – history and beauty on Norfolk Island
- The garden and significant trees of Franklin House in Tasmania.
- Margot and Maurice made the change from gardening in cold Canberra to subtropical gardening in southern Queensland.
- How Bendigo is helping gardeners cope with a changing climate.
- Nanette's downsized garden is full of colour.
- Deirdre Mowat has found that members of the acanthus family do well in her summer garden.
- Hillandale is a garden for all seasons.
- Native flannel flowers are fabulous and make great cut flowers, too.
- Kids' gardening starts young.
- Frog Hollow shows us how to handle a sloping block.
- New methods for controlling fruit fly

As always there are the perennial favourites such as Diary Dates, Photo Comp, Hazel's Seasonal Tips, In Touch with the GCA, plus the informative and inspiring ads from our many supporters.
