Issue 87 Summer 2020/21

This summer issue has a very summery picture on the front cover of two children enjoying the sunflowers on their aunt's farm in Manjimup, Western Australia. Read about the creation of Stellar Violets in Lucinda's story that outlines her plans to adapt and share this old family property.

You'll also read about:

- Doris's Christmas garden
- The roses of Fairview in Subiaco, Perth
- The lady who designed Heronswood
- Sylvie rescues wild babies in Tasmania
- An orchid expert's tips for softcane dendrobiums
- The young discover indoor plants
- The hardy native saltbushes
- The mysterious fruit stinging moth
- Botanical artists pay homage to Banks and Solander
- Trees for a warming climate
- Marvellous Millaa Millaa

There are also the winners of the GCA Awards and much more, including Seasonal Tips, GCA Photo Comp and news from clubs that are coping with COVID.

Tell us what you'd like to read or what you'd like us to feature in future issues. If you have a special garden story you'd like to share, are a keen grower or would like to contribute an article, please email the editor to discuss: editor@gardenclubs.org.au.
